Element restaurant has received a mix of reviews from its customers, ranging from excellent to disappointing. While some have raved about the food and service, others have been less impressed. Despite this inconsistency, many customers have highlighted the fantastic cocktails and seasonal menus. The bartenders have received high praise for their creativity and customer service. In terms of food, the wood-fired pizzas and the salmon fillet seem to be popular choices. The restaurant also caters to dietary restrictions and has a wheelchair accessible space. Overall, Element offers a diverse menu with a peaceful atmosphere, making it a great spot for a meal in Maryland.
